Description

Elegant set of 4 sterling silver George III Old English feather edge serving spoons.

Maker: William Tweedie. London 1772

A contemporary crest is engraved at the tip of the front of each stem.

The full set of hallmarks are extremely well stamped on the reverse of the stem at the base, all marks are very crisp and clear.

These spoons are a very pleasing shape and would fit in very well with other patterns on the dining table.

Length: 10.9 inches (27.68cm)

Weight: 13 troy ounces (404.35 grams) set of 4
