

GEORGE III TWO PRONGED SILVER TOASTING FORK. CIRCA 1800-1820.

£1,055

REF: 8946

Description

Handsome GEORGE III Two Pronged Silver Toasting Fork.
Unmarked . CIRCA 1800-1820.

The fork has two curved pronged tines with the initial 'W 'scratched on the reverse and has a turned wooden baluster handle. There is a green, looped grosgrain ribbon attached to the end of the handle. Nowadays it would be fun to use for toasting marshmallows or crumpets.

Length: 34.45 inches (87.5cm)