

Early 19th Century Silver Spatula/Tongue Depressor.

£800

Description

Interesting 19th Century silver spatula/tongue depressor.
Makers mark only: PA.

One end of the depressor is bevelled on one side, while the other end has a cut-out decorative design.
These items were often given as gifts to the doctor by a grateful patient.

Length: 5.2 inches (13.2cm)
Weight: 0.72 troy ounces (22.4 grams)