

Scottish silver Cameron clan badge. Maker Arthur Medlock.

Sold

REF: 8087

Diameter: 2 cm (0.8")

Description

Made by Arthur Medlock in Inverness in circa 1880. Armoured bent right arm holding dagger. The Cameron motto is engraved on the clan belt, PRO REGE ET PATRIA (For King and Country). The bottom part of the belt is ornately engraved. The reverse is plain with the makers mark, MEDLOCK, struck at the bottom and the abbreviation for Inverness beneath. In the centre there is a sturdy horizontal pin secured by a hook. A number of Arthur Medlocks clan badges have very similar ornate engraving on the lower part of the clansmans belt and buckle.

A number of Arthur Medlocks clan badges have very similar ornate engraving on the lower part of the clansmans belt and buckle.

Hallmarked :- Inverness 1880