Victorian Sterling Silver Cup on Hexagonal Foot. London 1869.

Edward Ker Reid

£600

Sanda Lipton Antique Silver
Suite 202, 2 Lansdowne Row, Berkeley Square, London, W1J 6HL

REF: 8774

Description

Beautifully executed Victorian sterling silver cup on reeded hexagonal foot.

Maker: E K R. Edward Ker Reid. London, 1869

The rim of the cup has bands of bright cut engraving and the coat of arms below is surrounded by bright cut decoration. The wording on the opposite side of the cup is very finely engraved in contemporary script.

Henrico Palin Gurney A B

Ex dono Roberti Greene A M Tamworthiensis

Colegii de Clare Socii

Ut literus diligenter persequendas

Sceintiumque impenso studio

Excolendum impelleret

Anno Domini 1870

(To Henry Palin Gurney, Bachelor of Arts,

Given by Robert Greene, of Tamworth,

A Master of Arts and Fellow of Clare College (Cambridge)

In order that he may persuade intellectual young men

To persevere in scholarship and improve their knowledge

With application and enthusiasm

A D 1870).

The full set of hallmarks is clearly struck on one of the flanges of the hexagonal foot.

Width Top: 3.2 inches (8.1cm)

Width Base: 3.25 inches (8.25cm)

Sanda Lipton Antique Silver
Suite 202, 2 Lansdowne Row, Berkeley Square, London, W1J 6HL

Height: 6.9 inches (17.5cm)

Sanda Lipton Antique Silver
Suite 202, 2 Lansdowne Row, Berkeley Square, London, W1J 6HL