

Early 19th Century set of 12 Brass Gilt Hunting Buttons by Firmin & Langdale. Circa 1817.

£440

REF: 8332

Description

Very charming early 19th Century set of 12 brass gilt hunting buttons.

Maker: Firmin & Langdale. London circa 1817.

Each button illustrates the same initials and scene depicting a hound in full pursuit with the inscription Tantara meaning fanfare.

They would make an excellent gift.

Diameter: 1 inch (2.54cm)