

Edwardian Sterling Silver Novelty Pepper Pot Shaped as a Hare
Grey & Co, Birmingham

£990

Description

Amusing Edwardian sterling silver novelty pepper pot modelled as a hare which makes a good conversation piece at the dining table. The forehead is pierced to allow the pepper to come out and is filled by removing the head.

Maker: Grey & Co. Birmingham 1903.

The two front feet are each partly hallmarked as is the collar of the pull-off head.

Height: 2.50 inch (6.35 cm)

Weight: 0.70 Troy Ounces (21.77 grams)